Dear Facility Owners/Operators and Agents-in-Charge:

Beginning October 16, 2003 all facilities that manufacture, produce, process, pack, hold or handle food, drug (pharmaceutical), biologic, and medical device, must register with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA). This new Facility Registration Regulation is necessary to carry out the four major safety provisions of the "Public Health and Bio-terrorism Preparedness and Response Act" passed by the U.S. Congress and signed into law on June 12, 2002. The Act is divided into Five Titles intended to assure public safety.

Final regulations are being prepared and will be issued by the Secretary, through the FDA, for the following Four New Provisions: (1) "Registration of food Facilities with FDA", that is owned and /or operated or having an agent-in-charge. Foreign facilities must designate a U.S. Resident Agent, by December 12, 2003, to handle the facility Registration and to serve as a point-of-contact for communicating both routine and emergency information between FDA and the registered facility(s). The agent must be available to FDA on a twenty-four hour/seven days a week (24/7) basis to ensure compliance with the Act in the event of an emergency.

Also effective December 12, 2003, FDA and U.S. Customs will require that U.S. bound imports from registered foreign facilities must provide (2) "Prior Notice of all imported food shipments" to the United States regardless of whether the product will be consumed in the United States. If prior notice is not given or is inadequate, the Act requires that imports be held until adequate notice has been provided. The Act has two additional requirements (3) "Establishment and Maintenance of Record Keeping" and (4) "Administrative Detention".

This new regulation has created frustration and anxiety for regulatory professionals and facility owners and/or operators globally. AGDE, Corp., can eliminate this burden for you and your company. If you would like to know more about FDA's new regulations you are invited to register with American Global Data Exchange Corporation (AGDE, Corp.), and join our services (If you decide to register for AGDE, Corp., services a copy of our Agreement with Annual U.S. Registered Agent Service "Fee Schedule" will be provided for you to review, sign and return with Annual Fee Payment(s)).
